Flight Plan

TKGA 2022 Design Contest Official Guidelines

- The entry should be classified as a shawl. It must be a garment worn on or around the shoulders. The garment can cover other body parts but the main section of the garment should go around the shoulders. The shawl can be any shape.
- Yarns used must be currently available commercial yarns. Yarns can be of any color or fiber and can also contain embellishments within the strand, such as (but not limited to) felted ornaments, beads, or other non-yarn trim. If the yarn used was currently available at the announcement of the contest, but was discontinued by the close of the contest, please note this on your entry form with your yarn information. Do not use scraps from stash if the yarn cannot be identified.
- All entries must be hand knit. Accessories and embellishments may be fabricated from materials other than yarn, such as (but not limited to) beads or buttons; or handcrafted by a method other than knitting, such as (but not limited to) crochet, needlepoint, or embroidery. These non-knitted additions can be only embellishments, with the main item being hand knit with yarn.
- All submitted designs must be the original work of the entrant. An original design is one that is not directly modeled on an existing pattern and differs substantially in gauge (or yarn weight), stitch pattern, and design styling from other available designs.
- Only current members of TKGA are eligible to enter and receive prizes. You must be a member upon entry and upon conclusion of the contest.
- Knitters of all levels are encouraged to submit their original design. The contest is open to both amateur and professional designers.
- Published designs are not eligible for entry. This includes self-published designs.
- There is a limit of two entries per designer.
- All entries must be received by 11:59 PM EDT, October 1, 2022. The winner will be announced on November 1, 2022.*
- Entries will be made by submitting photographs of the item. Each entry must include at least four, but no more than six, photographs. One of the photographs should show the item in its entirety. One photo should show the item laid flat with the outside or first side facing. One photo should show the inside (or wrong side, or other side) laid flat. If there are any important construction details, such as ties, closures, or seams, include a photograph of these areas. Close-up photos of intricate stitch patterns or stitch work is encouraged, as is a photo of the item on a model or mannequin. Keep in mind the judges must be able to see your work to evaluate and assess it. We will accept only jpeg files, and the files should not be any larger than 350KB (72dpi and 500 pixels). Any photo larger than 350KB will have the size reduced at the discretion of the Design Contest Committee. In addition, please name each photo file using the following naming convention: nameofdesign.photo#.jpg Example: ShawlShawlItem.photo#2.jpg

- Entries will be judged anonymously by a jury of TKGA Certified Judges and/or TKGA Certified Master Knitters with extensive design experience. All decisions by the jury will be final and binding. The judging panel will be announced May 1, 2022.
- Entries will be judged on the following criteria:
 - Design and Artistic Appeal
 - Originality and Creativity
 - Color Balance and/or Harmony
 - Quality and Workmanship
- All entries must be accompanied by the two-page entry form at the end of this flyer. Send only the signed entry form along with your photographs. DO NOT include a pattern for your item. We must be able to read the entry form or you will be asked to resend the form.
- Six places will be awarded. No entrant can place in more than one slot. Photographs of the winning designs will be published in the Spring Issue of Cast On.
- Complete entries should be emailed to designcontest.tkga@gmail.com

* In the event that there is an unexpectedly large number of entries, TKGA reserves the right to extend the judging period. Should this occur, an announcement will be made on Ravelry and in K2TOG.

 While the contestant retains copyright of all photographs, TKGA retains the right to use all photographs submitted for advertising and guild purposes in both print and online.

Issue publication subject to change.
